Presented by the SRI&ETTC at Stockton University
July 2018

THE CALM AND CONNECTED CLASSROOM: SOCIAL-EMOTIONAL LEARNING & MINDFULNESS FOR AT-RISK LEARNERS

Tuesday, July 10, 2108, 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

In this workshop participants will be introduced to the behind-the-scenes world of their students, and the emotional and biological effects of trauma and adverse childhood experiences on the developing brain. Participants will learn techniques to manage stress in the classroom through mindfulness and social-emotional activities such as Social-Emotional Wheels, Finger-Breathing, Take 4 Before, and The 1-Minute Calm Down Challenge. Participants will also reconnect to their legacies as educators and learn best practices for incorporating Social Emotional Check-Ins to create calm and connected classroom experiences for all students

Cost: $106.00 or 4 ETTC Hours

MINDFULNESS FOR TEACHERS

Tuesday, July 17, 2108, 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

The materials from this highly restorative and informative workshop will focus on deepening educators practice of mindfulness with a focus on how to build an effective practice and how to share those tools with students. Teachers will explore evidence pointing to the positive effects of mindfulness including increased lowered stress, greater ability to focus, self-awareness, as well as improvements in physical and mental health. Experiential activities include breathing, visualization and mindful moving techniques. Teachers are provided with many hands on activities and resources to take back to their classrooms and share with students.

Cost: $106.00 or 4 ETTC Hours

The Calm and Connected Classroom Series will be presented by Joanna Schwartz
