

Southern Regional Institute and ETTC
presents
Danielson Training for Administrators
Summer 2018

Do you have new administrators in your district? After several years of using the Danielson Framework to evaluate teachers, would your experienced administrators benefit from a refresher course? The SRI&ETTC will be providing workshops for both new and experienced administrators on the Danielson Framework during the Summer of 2018.

Danielson Framework for New Administrators

Tuesday, August 14, 2018, 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

This workshop will focus on developing a working knowledge of the Danielson Framework with exploration of the four domains and their components. Practice with collecting ample evidence, scoring the observation, and conducting the post-observation conference will be provided.

Cost: $178 or 7 ETTC Hours per individual. Lunch will be provided at the August 14th session.

Danielson Refresher for Experienced Administrators

Thursday, August 16, 2018, 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

This workshop will focus on enhancing use of and addressing common challenges with using the Danielson framework. Topics include determining a score when evidence falls between levels, conducting post-observation conferences, building inter-rater reliability, and working with your faculty leadership teams (e.g. DEAC, SCIP). Additionally, utilizing the framework for instructional improvement will be explored.

Cost: $106 or 4 ETTC Hours per individual

The Danielson workshops will be presented by Dr. Annette Giaquinto

Dr. Giaquinto is the Superintendent of Schools for Galloway Township Public School with over 30 years' experience in public education.

Both workshops are taking place at the SRI&ETTC facility in Galloway, which is conveniently located off Exit 41 of the Garden State Parkway.
