

The SRI&ETTC and LEGAL ONE at NJPSA-FEA are proud to present
Dyslexia: The New Hothouse of the Legal Landscape
March 24, 2017

Educating students with Dyslexia presents Districts with a unique set of challenges. In addition to potential eligibility for Special Education and related services under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act or the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), New Jersey has enacted specific legislation which creates additional obligations for addressing the needs of students suspected of having Dyslexia. Looking at Federal and State legislation, court decisions, guidance from OSEP and OCR, as well as hypotheticals, this session will address the following in the context of students with Dyslexia: child find obligation; evaluation procedures; eligibility; FAPE, including methods of providing same; legal dispute resolution methods; and more.

The workshop will be presented by Isabel Machado, Esq. & Sandra Jacques, Esq.

Ms. Machado is the founding partner of the Machado Law Group and has devoted her distinguished legal career to the practice of education law. Ms. Jacques is the LEGAL ONE Supervisor of Legal Research and Content Development.
