

Hazing in Sports: Yes It's Happening in Your School ... It's Just Locker Room Talk or is it?

PRESENTED BY THE SRI&ETTC AT STOCKTON UNIVERSITY

Bullying is everywhere—in our schools, our streets, and our corporations. But in the world of sports, bullying rules. Whether you realize or not, hazing is very likely happening to some extent in your athletic department. Fifty-percent of college students experience hazing in high school, primarily through sports. The number one location it occurs is in the locker room. This workshop focuses on the old saying “What's said in the locker room, stays in the locker room.” But, what if the comments are abusive, homophobic, and sexually objectify others? Come join in this important dialogue.

The Hazing in Sports: Yes It's Happening in Your School... It's Just Locker Room Talk or is it? will be presented by Coach Randy Nathan.

Coach Randy is an international keynote speaker and workshop facilitator. His dynamic approach engages educators and parents on bullying in sports and the power of personal choice.
