

IMPLEMENTING JUST WORDS IN THE CLASSROOM

Presented by the SRI&ETTC at Stockton University

This three-hour introductory training workshop will focus on implementing the Just Words program as an intervention for identified students.

There will be a review of the program's components with emphasis on student identification, daily lessons, word study strategies, progress monitoring, and the use of on-line resources for effective instruction. It is recommended that participants bring the Just Words Instructor Manual if it is available. Teachers will gain a better understanding of the structure of this program and its application for Tier 2 intervention students.

The workshop will be presented by Christine Fuhs. Ms. Fuhs is a retired teacher and Teaching and Learning Facilitator with over 30 years educational experience.
