

WINTER POETRY & PROSE GETAWAY
MURPHY WRITING OF STOCKTON UNIVERSITY
FRIDAY, JANUARY 17 THROUGH MONDAY, JANUARY 20, 2020
at Stockton Seaview Hotel in Galloway, N.J.

The SRI&ETTC is proud to partner with Murphy Writing of Stockton University to allow consortium member districts to register for the Winter Poetry & Prose Getaway using ETTC Hours.

The Winter Poetry & Prose Getaway is a three-day conference where educators hone their creative writing skills and expand their teaching strategies. Now in its 26th year, the Getaway is known for challenging and supportive workshops featuring small classes led by award-winning professionals. Pulitzer Prize winner Yusef Komunyakaa and National Endowment for the Arts Fellowship recipient Denise Duhamel are special guests at this year's conference.

Participants will:

- Engage with the New Jersey Student Learning Standards by practicing different types of writing for different purposes and audiences.
- Choose from workshops including novel writing, memoir, creative nonfiction, freewriting, and poetry. Each offers craft discussion, writing prompts, writing time, feedback, motivation, and inspiration.

The conference was founded by veteran teacher Peter Murphy in the belief that when writers leave behind the distractions of their busy lives to gather in an encouraging community, they are able to make important breakthroughs in their art. The author of ten books, Peter has received numerous awards and fellowships.
